

Céline POILLY

Université Catholique de Louvain la Neuve
Department of Economics, IRES
Rue Montesquieu, 3
B-1348 Louvain la Neuve, Belgium

Tel: 00-32-10-47-35-07
Fax: 00-32-10-47-39-45

celine.poilly@uclouvain.be <http://perso.uclouvain.be/celine.poilly/>

Born on December 3, 1980, french.

Current position

Assistant professor at the Université Catholique de Louvain la Neuve, IRES.

Research areas

- DSGE models - Macro-econometrics - Monetary policy

Education

- 2004-2008: Ph.D. in Economics, University of Cergy-Pontoise and Banque de France
Title: Essays on nominal rigidities, real frictions and monetary policy
Comitee: Sanvi Avouyi-Dovi (Banque de France), Frédérique Bec (supervisor, University of Cergy Pontoise), Patrick Fève (Toulouse School of Economics), François Langot (University of Le Mans), Christian Merkl (Kiel Institute), Rafael Wouters (Banque Nationale de Belgique).
Defended the 10 of september 2008, obtained with the highest honors.
- 2003-2004: Mastère spécialisé M.Sc. in Economics Modelisation and Statistics at the National School of Statistics and Economics (ENSAE)
- 2002-2003: M.Sc. in Economics and Econometrics at the University of Aix-Marseille (GREQAM)
Thesis title: Imperfect capital market and indeterminacy (in french)
Supervisor: Patrick Pintus
- 2001-2002: M.A. in Economics, Exchange program at the University of Montreal and University of Aix-Marseille

Publications

- Structural Assessment of the Sacrifice Ratio and the Euro Area, with Jérôme Coffinet and Julien Matheron (in french), 2009. Forthcoming Revue d'Economie Politique.
- How well does a small structural model with sticky prices and wages fit postwar U.S. data?, with Julien Matheron. Economic Modelling, 2009, 26,266-284.
- Monetary policy dynamics in the euro area, with Patrick Fève and Julien Matheron. Economics Letters, 2007, 96, 97-102.

Working papers and ongoing research

- Does money matter for the identification of monetary policy shocks: A DSGE perspective. THEMA Working Papers 2007-23, University of Cergy-Pontoise; NER Banque de France, n° 184, 2007.
- Welfare implications of heterogeneous labor markets in a currency area, with Jean-Guillaume Sahuc. NER Banque de France, n° 199, 2007.

Conferences and seminars

- November 2008: Staff Seminar, Kiel Institute of World Economy (Kiel-Germany)
- June 2008: Doctoral Workshop on “Dynamic Macroeconomics” (Strasbourg-France)
- March 2008: Wage Dynamic Network seminar (Paris-France)
- January 2008: Third PhD Presentation Meeting (London-England)
- September 2007: AFSE conference (Paris-France)
- September 2007: Dynare conference (Paris-France)
- January 2007: Théories et méthodes de la macroéconomie T2M conference (Paris-France)
- September 2006: New Developments in Macroeconomic Modelling and Growth Dynamics (Faro-Portugal)
- August 2006: EEA conference (Vienna-Austria)
- Lunch seminar Cergy-THEMA (december 2005 - october 2007)
- Seminar Banque de France (may 2006 - june 2007)

Summer school participation

- November 2005: EACBN SummerSchool. Topics in Applied Time Series and Forecasting. Prof. Mark Watson.
- August 2006: OeNB SummerSchool. Estimation and Evaluation of DSGE models. Prof. Frank Schorfheide.
- June 2007: ZEI SummerSchool. Monetary Theory and Policy. Prof. Stephanie Schmitt-Grohé & Martin Uribe.

Other activity

- March-May 2009: Research stay, Economics department, Georgetown University (Washington -US).

Refereeing assignments

Economics Modelling, Journal of Economic Dynamics and Control, Journal of Macroeconomics.

Teaching experiences

- 2008 : Simulation and Estimation of Dynamic General Equilibrium Model, PhD course, UCL.
- 2004 : Monetary Economics, Undergraduate level, University of Paris 1.

Miscellaneous

- 2005: Adaptation and translation in french language of one chapter from Paul R. Krugman and Maurice Obstfeld, International Economics - theory and policy, 7ème éd., Pearson Addison-Wesley.
- Computer skills: Matlab, Dynare, Eviews, Scientific Workplace
- Language skills: french (mother tongue), english